AROUND THE WORLD

Little Beloved Flower

French Creole Songs in the Shade of the Flamboyant Tree from Haiti and Reunion

Collected by Chantal Grosleziat Illustrated by Laurent Corvaisier

🎵 MUSICAL TRADITIONS / MATERNITY / CULTURE / COMMUNITY

12 traditional French Creole lullabies and nursery rhymes from Haiti and Réunion pay homage to community, family ties, work, love and life's passages.

Imagine a daily island hubbub with warm breezes, salt water, music flowing through towns and countryside. The melodies included celebrate history, language and culture with sounds of indigenous instruments alongside performances of women, men and children. Colourful illustrations of tropical animals, magical characters, people and places complete this title, giving fanciful transport to the listener.

Also included are educational notes on the origin and cultural context of each song. Lyrics are printed in the original French-Creole dialects and translated into English. The recordings available on all music streaming platforms can be accessed with a QR code printed in the book.

Chantal Grosleziat has devoted over three decades to researching how children are affected by music. As an educator and musician, her work includes the award-winning musical picturebook collection, "Comptines du monde" ("Nursery Rhymes from Around the World"), and the series, "Bébés chasseurs des sons" ("Babies Are Sound Hunters"). She resides in Paris, France.

Laurent Corvaisier is a painter, illustrator and instructor at the École Nationales Supérieur des Arts Décoratifs in France. He has illustrated more than 100 children's books which have been translated into several languages. He resides in Paris, France.

STORIES WITH MUSIC

OCTOBER 2025

Keep Your Ears Wide Open

Story by Céline Claire Illustrations by Marie Lafrance

🔊 VISUAL IMPAIRMENT / MODES OF TRANSPORTION / FRIENDSHIP / SHARING

A touching portrayal of a young visually impaired boy who opens his heart to others.

Knock! Knock! Choo! Choo! Vroom! Vroom! As Russel awaits a visit from his brother, with every sound he wonders: Is Angus here? No, not yet. But with his ears — and his heart — wide open, Russel responds to the calls of a series of strangers who become his friends. Good thing because... Ting-a-ling! Ting-a-ling! Did you hear that? It sounds like Angus needs to be rescued!

A recording of the narrated story can be accessed with a QR code printed in the book.

Céline Claire is the author of many books published for children and young readers. Formerly a schoolteacher, she has collaborated over the past 20 years with several established French publishing houses, including Bayard, Milan and Circonflexe. She resides in a small village in northeastern France with her family.

Marie Lafrance studied graphic arts, etching, and worked as a printmaker before going on to illustrate children's books. Over her career she's earned three nominations for the Governor General's Literary Award, and she recently received the Ruth and Sylvia Schwartz Children's Book Award for "A Hen for Izzy Pippik." She resides in Montreal.

The Old Man and the Child

Story Gabrielle Roy Adaptation Dominique Fortier Translation Katherine Sehl
Narration Jolianne Li Illustrations Rog 

➤ FRIENDSHIP / DISCOVERY / SUMMER / PRAIRIES

A touching, poetic inter-generational story about friendship that takes place on the Canadian prairies.

Christine lives in a small windswept prairie city where time moves slowly. One morning, at the height of a hot, dry summer, she befriends an old man who lives just a few streets over. As their unlikely friendship grows, they hatch a plan to visit Lake Winnipeg, a vast inland ocean the old man longs to see again and the young girl can only imagine.

Gabrielle Roy (1909-1983) is one of the most prominent figures in French Canadian literature, and considered one of the great contemporary writers on the human condition. She is the first Canadian to win France's Prix Femina, for the debut novel Bonheur d'occasion. The translation (The Tin Flute) won the Governor-General's Award in 1947. She was awarded a Canada Council Medal in 1968.

Novelist Dominique Fortier holds a Ph.D. in literature from McGill University and is also a respected editor and literary translator. Her novel Au p ril de la mer (2015) won the Governor General's Award for French fiction and her essay Maisons de papier (2020) was awarded the prestigious Prix Renaudot in France. She lives in Montreal.

Rog  is a prolific illustrator, painter and writer, with more than 30 children's books to his name. He has won numerous awards for his work; amongst many others he is a winner of the prestigious Governor General of Canada Award in 2006 and The New York Times Best Illustrated Children's Books Award in 2014. He resides in Montreal.
